Year 2026 is upon us!! Blessings to each of you and yours. My mind is overwhelmed with ideas for this coming year. We'll start with a Spaghetti Dinner prepared by our own Sharon Rudess on Monday, January 26th and flow into February with a Souper Bowl Bingo and Euchre Tournament on Monday, February 9th. Melinda Shinaver of Compass Care is quarterbacking this new fundraiser. See details below. We are also discussing changing up the dance to a senior prom and having the dance in late Spring. Are you up for that? Your input and suggestions are welcomed.

Did you set some new goals and resolutions for 2026? I always do, and in 2025 I think I did well, even the losing weight part. Now I just need to continue for 2026.

December was a really busy time around the Center focusing on the holidays. Between the Center, family, friends and volunteering, I am looking forward to my 2 weeks in sunny Florida. Again this year I am leaving with Cork the day after Christmas and we are driving to Florida. I am looking forward to just relaxing, catching a little sunshine and reading a good book. My son, Philip came home from Denver in November for Thanksgiving, so he did not make it home for Christmas. I sure miss those special times with him.

A BIG THANK YOU to all who donated and made our holiday luncheon so spectacular!

2026 brought us many challenges with our financial situation, but together we pulled through. Patrick Trompeter challenged the Center and the Community to match his $100,000 donation he made to us last April and by the end of the year we will have raised $60,000 towards that match and we still have time through the end of 2026. So, please check your finances and help if you can. I hope I have made my appreciation well known for all you've done. I value each and everyone of you.

Also, as the New Year begins, stop and reflect on all who are ill or those who may have passed, let's renew our continued devotion to all our family and friends. Read our mission statement in this newsletter to make this Center a safe and welcoming place for everyone.

We will be changing up the computer signup soon, so those who hate changes...it will be changing a bit. As we always do we will do it slow and steady, no reason to fret! See you in the new year!

Blessings for all in 2026, Paula

It's Amy's fault she used most of my space this month!
